

The Torrington Savings Bank Scholarship

$10,000 Award

Scholarship Application Requirements

The Torrington Savings Bank Scholarship is a $10,000 award ($2,500/year for up to four years of post secondary education) for graduating seniors who (or parents/ guardians) are customers of Torrington Savings Bank.

SCHOLARSHIPS will be awarded annually.

Candidates must complete the scholarship application form and provide the following:

1. Letter of reference from a teacher or academic advisor
2. Letter of reference from a parent or guardian
3. Official transcript
4. College acceptance letter
5. A 300 minimum - 600 maximum word essay response to the following topic:

At Torrington Savings Bank, our core values—People, Excellence, Integrity, Collaboration, and Community—guide everything we do.

In your essay, please describe how your personal values align with one or more of these principles, and share how continuing your education will help you achieve your goals.

The Torrington Savings Bank Scholarship Committee will review all properly submitted applications and choose recipients. Finalists must be available for an interview with the scholarship selection committee. Interviews will take place June 16, 2026.

Scholarship awards will be made payable to the college for the benefit of the student.

Application forms complete with all required documents are due by May 1, 2026.

Award for years 2-4 will be disbursed upon evidence of good academic standing and continued matriculation at the College. Official transcript and the next semester's schedule should be sent to above address once available.
